I have attended the Charles Novell School Of Music for 12 straight years. Aside from singing, I enjoy business marketing and have had some experience in social media and designing The Padgett's website that has been running for six years. fatherandsonmusic.net

It is an honor to sing about the greatest message, the Gospel. As a young adult, it is my desire to uplift the name of the Lord Jesus Christ through the music I grew up singing, southern gospel. The church and the entire world need to hear the messages that these songs provide, and I want to continue to honor the heritage that was laid before me, so generations after me can experience the power of God through song just as I do every day.

Attached to this email is a photo and two song demos. Thank you for your consideration.
