It is an honor to sing about the greatest message, the Gospel. As a young adult, it is my desire to uplift the name of the Lord Jesus Christ through the music I grew up singing, southern gospel. The church and the entire world need to hear the messages that these songs provide, and I want to continue to honor the heritage that was laid before me, so generations after me can experience the power of God through song just as I do every day.

Attached to this email is a photo and three song demos. Thank you for your consideration.
